IMPORTANT COVID-19 INFORMATION

The Utah Shetland Sheepdog Association (the “Club”) will prioritize the health and safety of its members, exhibitors and others in attendance at these specialty shows. As such, the Club will enforce social distancing rules and other guidelines implemented by the Governor of Utah, the State Department of Public Health or other state or local government agencies in response to the Covid-19 pandemic and in force at the time of our shows.

These Public Health Guidelines are subject to change at any time and could, under extreme circumstances, require the cancellation of our shows for reasons beyond the Club’s control. The Club will take actions to mitigate health risks to the best of its ability.

The Club is pleased to be able to hold our specialty shows and the exact grounds show may change the day of show. The event may be held OUTDOORS vs. INDOORS which will facilitate safe social distancing for exhibitors, spectators, members and our judges. Other precautions may be taken to adhere to Public Health Guidelines, including limiting the number of chairs around the show ring and requesting that attendees try to stay at least 6 ft. apart where possible.

The Club will ask our judges to allow extra time for exhibitors and their dogs to reach the ring, if necessary, to avoid crowding at ringside.

The Club will adjust its schedule of events as necessary in response to the public health conditions in place at the time of our shows.

Everyone entering their dogs at these specialty shows and attending the event for any reason is aware of and accepts any public health risks that may exist at the time and is fully responsible for the consequences of their own actions. Although the Club intends to follow Public Health Guidelines, it accepts no responsibility, financial or otherwise, for loss, damage or injury that may occur as a result of anyone’s participation of any kind in these shows.

If it should become necessary for the Club to cancel these shows for any reason, prior to the closing date for entries, any entry fees received will be refunded in full in a timely manner to the person that made such entries and in the form he or she made them.

If the show must be cancelled after close of entries, the Club will retain that portion of the entry fees that are needed to offset unavoidable costs of the show and intends to refund the balance.
